

m a z ō

Product fact sheet

MZO CHAIR

MZO Chair Barstool

Magnus Læssøe Stephensen
1931

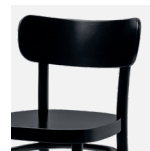

This iconic chair played a leading role in one of the fairy tales of Danish furniture design. However – more curiously – it is also on display at The Workers Museum in Copenhagen. This chair was designed specifically with the ambition to create a chair that working class Danes could afford.

|                         |                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ENVIRONMENT             | Indoor use only                                                                                                                                                    |
| MATERIALS               | Solid Beech, plywood, molded veneer, Lacquer.                                                                                                                      |
| CONSTRUCTION            | MZO chair is crafted from steam-bent beech, with a seat and back made of laminated molded veneer. It is available in versions with or without an upholstered seat. |
| DIMENSIONS              | Width: 46 cm / 18,1 inHeight: 102 cm / 40,2 inDepth: 50 cm / 19,7 inSeat Height: 75 cm / 29,5 inSeat Depth: 42 cm / 16,5 in                        |
| WEIGHT                  | Product: 5,2 kg / Incl. packaging: 6,7 kg.                                                                                                                         |
| STANDARDS/TESTS     | Strength, durability, and safety: EN 16139 (Level 1)                                                                                                               |
| COLLISPECIFICATIONS | Outer Colli (W × H × D):52cm × 85cm × 48cmWeight: 6,7 kgQuantity: 1                                                                                    |
| COUNTRY OFORIGIN    | Poland                                                                                                                                                             |
| CAREINSTRUCTIONS    | Please see our Maintenance & Care guide on website.                                                                                                                |
| WARRANTY                | Mazo provides 2-year product warranty                                                                                                                              |

LINEDRAWINGS

ROYAL BLUE

BLACK

KVADRAT/REMIX